

PennState
Dickinson Law

DICKINSON LAW REVIEW

PUBLISHED SINCE 1897

Volume 46
Issue 3 Dickinson Law Review - Volume 46,
1941-1942

3-1-1942

The Dickinson School of Law Announces an All Year Program of Studies

Follow this and additional works at: <https://ideas.dickinsonlaw.psu.edu/dlra>

Recommended Citation

The Dickinson School of Law Announces an All Year Program of Studies, 46 DICK. L. REV. 179 (1942).
Available at: <https://ideas.dickinsonlaw.psu.edu/dlra/vol46/iss3/4>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Reviews at Dickinson Law IDEAS. It has been accepted for inclusion in Dickinson Law Review by an authorized editor of Dickinson Law IDEAS. For more information, please contact lja10@psu.edu.

THE DICKINSON SCHOOL OF LAW ANNOUNCES
AN ALL YEAR PROGRAM OF STUDIES

The Dickinson School of Law, with the approval of all the required authorities and in conformity with regulations recently adopted by the State Board of Law Examiners and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and the action recently taken by the Pennsylvania Bar Association, announces a three session plan and a modification of entrance requirements.

The plan is designed to adjust the program of preparation for admission to the bar to the needs of men who are or may be subject to service in the Armed Forces of the United States and to insure an adequate supply of competent lawyers during and after the War Emergency.

It will enable a student to complete his law school course and his legal preparation for admission to the bar in two calendar years.

There will be no reduction of content or lowering of standards in the course of instruction and the teaching in all sessions will be by the regular faculty. The three sessions will be of equal length and credit value.

Students who have attended an approved college for two years and who have completed one-half the work required for graduation with an average equal to that required for graduation meet the requirements prescribed by the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools and are therefore eligible for admission.

Students who are admitted and who satisfactorily complete the course comply with the scholastic requirements prescribed for taking the examination for admission to the bar of Pennsylvania.

The Dickinson School of Law is admirably suited for conducting of this three session plan. It is located on a large campus in the residential section of a beautiful town which is free from the dust and noise and heat of the great urban centers. There are abundant opportunities for recreational activities.

The dates for the three next ensuing sessions have been announced to be as follows: Summer Session—June 10, 1942 to September 23, 1942; Fall Session—October 7, 1942 to January 27, 1943; Winter Session—February 3, 1943 to May 19, 1943.

First year students may enter Law School in June, October or February.